The outlook is among the finest in Shoreditch, with uninterrupted views of the skyline. The overall specification, from finishes to fixtures and appliances, is of an exceptional standard—too extensive to fully detail here. In short, for anyone seeking a truly distinctive penthouse, this property is a standout option.

Inside, the quality of craftsmanship and abundance of natural light are immediately evident. The entrance level hosts three generously sized double bedrooms, all arranged off a central hallway. The principal suite faces south toward the City skyline and features a partially open-plan bathroom complete with a freestanding tub. Sliding doors lead directly onto a wraparound terrace, which also connects to the second and third bedrooms.

Upstairs, the top floor is designed for hosting, with a seamless open-plan layout combining kitchen, dining, and living areas. Floor-to-ceiling sliding doors on both sides open out onto two separate terraces—one overlooking Redchurch Street and the other oriented toward the City—creating a fluid indoor-outdoor living experience.
