The Bespoke Agent™

Positioned on the second floor, you make your way to the apartment via the well-kept communal garden boasting plenty of seating areas and bike storage. High ceilings, wooden floors, and natural light are most notable as you enter the property into the hallway, where the bathroom is situated on your immediate right, complete with a bath and overhead shower.

Each double bedroom has an abundance of space and copious amounts of natural light via the large sash windows. The neighbouring open-plan kitchen comes complete with integrated appliances whilst the living room has plenty of space for dining and relaxation.

Located moments from Spitalfields Market, Petticoat Lane is famous for being one of the oldest longstanding markets in London, best known for its clothing and fashion. Situated in a fantastic spot for all transport links, with Aldgate, Aldgate East, and London Liverpool Street only a short walk away.
